RIVER NORTH

River North began its transformation in the 1970s and 1980s when dormant factories and industrial warehouses were converted into work spaces and studios for artists and entrepreneurs. An influx of new businesses followed creating a dense submarket and a hub for creativity and entertainment. Anchoring the area is the Merchandise Mart with its endless trade showrooms for furniture and design wholesalers and recently as an incubator for tech companies.

Cultured by day, River North has lively night entertainment. The dining scene is buzzing from Spanish small plates to high-end steakhouses and famed pizzerias. Just about every type of business is covered in this mix of award-winning restaurants and local favorites. Following dinner many sleek new clubs, upscale wine bars and craft cocktail lounges also dot the scene.
